EDITORIAL

It was good to see that SWOC had 36 club members entered at Croeso, this is approximately half our membership!!! I hope everyone enjoyed the event. The ranking list shows that 55 members entered at least one event, Alan McKenzie breaks the record this year with a total of 44 events completed!!
It's back to mundane things now such as the AGM< mark your diaries now and make a big effort to attend. The Committee is always open to new ideas for club events and any offers of help.
Come along on Oct 3rd and have your say!!

Llangynydr Local Event 12/11/04

Approximately 15 brave souls and a couple of dogs battled with the elements at this local event. Orange, Lt Green and Blue courses were on offer. Although the sun shone occasionally the gale force wind and lashing rain made a cags essential. Thanks to the Manning family for organising it. The next local event is 10th October with John Mills doing the organisation.

RECENT SUCCESSES

Congratulations to Cerys Manning and Rhodri Buffet for winning their Classes at the Junior Home International in the Lake District.
Cerys has had a busy summer representing Britain in the Junior World Championships. She has also been included in the British team for the Junior European Cup which takes place on Oct 11/12th in Epping Forest—Good Luck!
Well done to all the SWOCies who featured in the Prize giving at the Welsh Championships, there were too many to mention them all here!!
We also have a fair sprinkling of 'oldies' who have been selected to run in the Welsh Team at the Veterans Home International in N Ireland. These include:
James Clemance M40
Nick Dallimore M45
Jill Manning W50
Judith Powell W60

CROESO

Thank you to everyone who helped on Day 6 of Croeso. Nigel even had the weather organised. Feedback was generally excellent. Apart from Clare being caught by a leftover army booby-trap snare the day ran smoothly! The Army expressed their sympathy but said she was just lucky the smoke grenade wasn't still attached.

Saunders 2004

I didn't hesitate to agree to entering the Saunders when asked by a friend from the running club—then the doubts set in, she was in peak condition having just completed the Paris marathon and was more than 10 years younger!! Would my navigation-erratic at the best of times -be up to it?

The 2 day event is held in the Lake District on the first weekend in July with competitors carrying all they need for the overnight camp. As first timers we opted for the Harter Fell Course which had a total straight line milage of approx 30Km.

After completing several long training runs in blazing sunshine our thoughts turned to kit, we would never need those gloves and hats would we. Having completed several Polaris events I was definitely aiming for a light sac. Angies boyfriend was aghast when I produced bubble wrap for sleeping on and plastic cups!! In the event we only just crammed everything in with both of us carrying about 10lbs.

I had opted to take 1:25,00 Harveys maps as we were only provided with a 1:40,000 map and some latecomers had to manage with a black and white photocopy!!

Race Day Dawned and things didn't look too hopeful with gales and plenty of rain forecast. It was a miserable start. Full wetty's head to toe we walked the 10 minutes to the start and as we sat down in the pouring rain to mark off our check points trying desperately not to smudge the map we looked at each other and said "what are we doing here?" We decided to start and went up the first of many mountains The Old Man of Conistone. At the top visibility was almost zero and the wind was so fierce that we were blown off our feet but the worst was the pain and cold from the sleet which whipped across any uncovered skin. We couldn't even hear each other speak (this may have been a good thing!).

Our day didn't get much better, on Swirl How a lens from my glasses blew away and it was half an hour before we could find anywhere sheltered enough to stop to find my spare ones. After 9 hours we reached the midway camp to find that of the 144 starters in our class only 49 had completed the course.

The next day—you guessed it, it was raining once again, but by the time we reached the first peak the sun was peeping through. We opted for the pretty route up Great Carrs via Swirl How to Wetherlam rather than taking the more direct route through the bracken which would have repeated the previous days route. The views were stunning "The second day was shorter but just as hard (especially as our legs were like jelly) the last check point seemed like the longest and the end seemed like it would never come but we made it and finished as 3rd female team. It was an amazing experience, the course was described to have crossed the highest and wildest part of the Lake District. It was meant to be a fell running weekend but we didn't do a lot of running on the first day as conditions didn't allow for it." We had such fun that we have both signed up for the KIMM with our partners. Surely the weather can be no worse in October???

Quantocks Long O

With the children away at the JHI for the weekend and as part of training for the KIMM we thought we would do the Quantock Long O. We entered the long course as a pair— 21 Km 21 controls. Unfortunately it was the hottest day in September on record and the planner thought he had better make up for the good path network by adding in more climb than usual. The event was based around Holford on the NE edge of the Quantocks. Controls were pretty easy to find and route choice was the main challenge especially given the steep terrain with numerous indenting valleys. We started in fairly runnable forest but then moved to a greener area of the map with where we decided to keep to paths after a disastrous 20min fight through rhododendron bushes on a 'short cut!'

It was hot! and wearing Tracksters against the reputed tick plague didn't help! I kept looking enviously at the families picnicking in the shade who clearly thought we were completely mad. Both of us had got through our 21 camelbacks by the time we made it to the manned check point (14) and decided to call it a day at (17) which was close to the event centre as we needed to be back in Cardiff by 5pm. Even with missing the last 4 controls we had been out for 5 hours and covered 25Km with 1,000m of climb.

We later found out that almost everyone on the long course retired with only 5 runners completing it! - Caroline Dallimore.

Ranking List Info

For information only, I have two extra columns showing the total number of events each competitor has completed and the average number of points they gained at these events. However the ranking list is still ordered on the best 10 results.

Please let me have details of any missing results.

John Mills (john.w.mills@btinternet.com)

Minutes of the South Wales Orienteering Club
Annual General Meeting held on 19th October,
2003 at Hopton Hill

1 Present:

Frank Ince, Peter Colbert, John Mills, Judith Powell, Colin Powell, Graham Tough, Alan MacKenzie, Vladimir Kuznetsov(part), Libuse Karnikova.

2 Apologies for Absence:

Pete Ribbans, Adrian Moir, Jane Richie, Kevin Bush, Nyall Meredith

3 Minutes of 2002 AGM:

Previously circulated by email – taken as read and agreed except that Jill Manning had been omitted from the elected committee members.

4 Matters Arising: None

5 Reports of the Officers: A report by the Secretary had been previously circulated by email: no Treasurer's Report or Membership Secretaries Report were available – to be circulated later. It was reported that it had been successful year for the club's juniors and Cerys Manning had won W20 at the SHI on the previous day by 8 clear minutes.

With regard to mapping, Peter Colbert reported that minor updates had been carried out during the year. A mention was made of the open day at Ruperra woods which was mainly a PR exercise.

6 Election of New Committee

The following were unanimously elected

Chairman:	Pete Ribbans	Fixtures:	Nyall Meredith

The secretary proposed that these remain at 2003 levels (passed unanimously).

8 2003 Event Fees

The committee proposed that these remain as 2002 and this was passed unanimously, i.

e. Local events : £3 & £1 Colour coded and gallopen : £4 & £1

Dibber hire: 50p

9 Club Trophies

The following were awarded – Top Senior – Judith Powell, Top Junior – Cerys Manning, contribution to club – Peter Ribbans, most improved member – Lauren Ferrand.

10 Any Other Business

1. An organiser was needed for the St Julians score event on 28th Dec – ask at next committee meeting.
2. An organiser is required for the string course at the SWOC CROESO day – again, carry forward to next committee meeting.
3. It was reported that DEE have an annual club dinner where people who have planned, organised or controlled during the past year receive a half-price meal. Should we consider something similar? Committee to consider.
